NEW!!! WRAPPED CANVAS PRINTS!!!

Sherry and I are introducing a new product line: Beautiful, wrapped Canvas Prints! For years at art shows, people have wanted to buy my display photographs of my original, copyrighted and trademarked artwork. Recently, we decided to sell my best photographs of my monumental art and nature. These new Canvas Prints are printed on canvas, instead of paper like my Signed & Numbered Art Prints.

I actually have been taking my own pictures since the age of 15, when I got my first camera. I sold my first national magazine article to BOW & ARROW magazine, with my own writing and photography in 1970, at age 17. I took photography classes at TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY which were required to earn a degree from the College of Architecture. I eventually used all kinds of film cameras, including the expensive, professional Mamiya studio cameras to photograph my art. Over the years, I have shot thousands of images, and thank God that digital photography was invented!

Our new wrapped Canvas Prints are suitable for display without the need for additional framing. Each Canvas Print is "wrapped" around a 1.5" thick wood frame.

However, to fit your décor, you can add a metal or wood frame. This framing is optional since the image wraps around the frame and looks great on the wall.

Currently we are producing my photographic prints in two sizes (24" x 24" and 24" x 36") depending on the composition format. However, you can order these images in other sizes if you wish by going to our ZAZZLE website store: www.zazzle.com/maxgreinerartgifts. ZAZZLE makes the prints for me and ships them direct to my clients. We get a sales commission on all ZAZZLE sales. (Use the Discount Code stated on the top of their website Home Page.)

We decided to add appropriate scriptures to some of my images to give them more meaning and value. As you may know, the Holy Spirit has given me my Christian compositions since 1986, starting with the "Divine Servant"®. The Bible says that God gives us good ideas and witty inventions. Here at MAX GREINER, JR. DESIGNS, we pray that God anoints my art so it blesses all who see it! Thanks for considering my new Canvas Prints for your home, office or church.

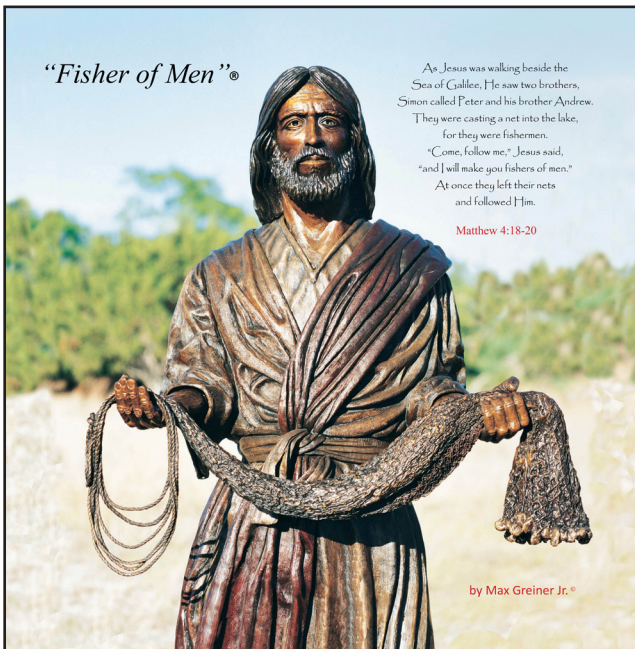

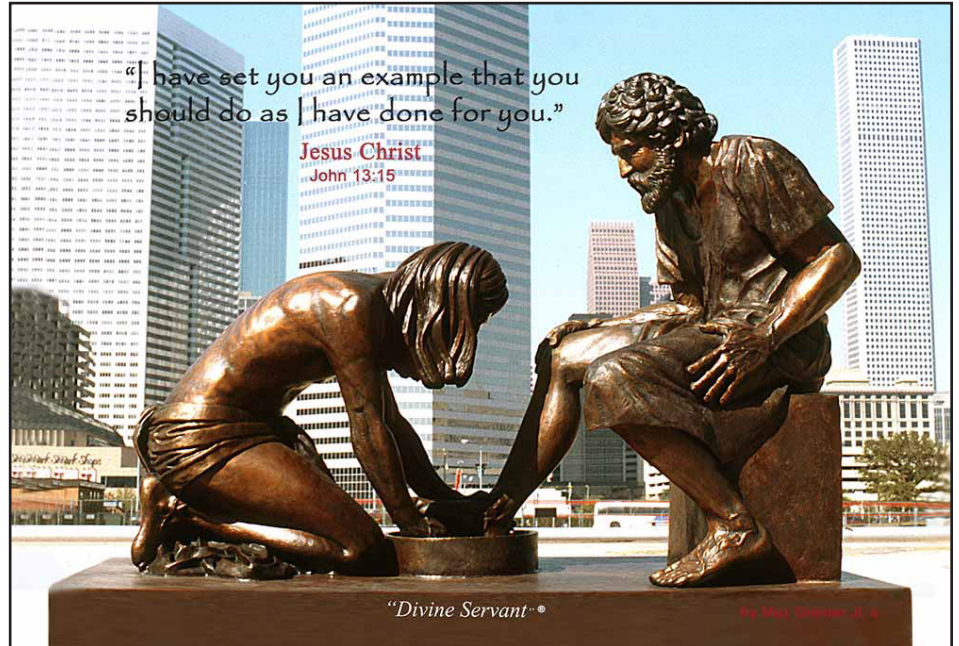

CANVAS PRINTS "CHRISTIAN EDITION"

In the spring of 1986, God spoke to me, and told me to create a sculpture of Jesus washing Peter's feet, based on the verses in JOHN 13. After a long season of disobedience, I finally obeyed God, and created the 1/6 life-size "Divine Servant"® bronze sculpture, in February of 1989.

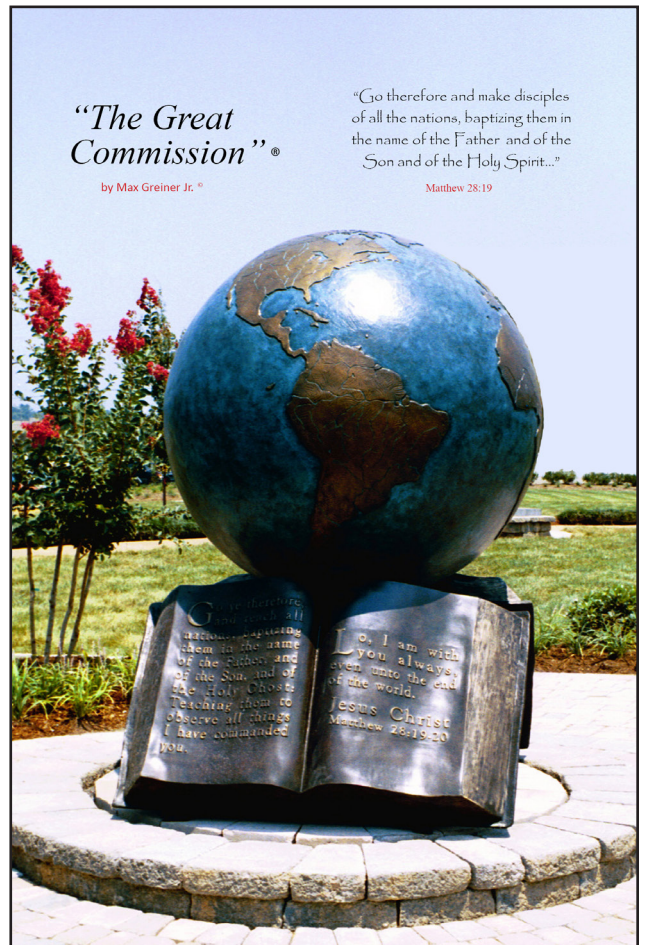

I learned from that first experience that God was still "commissioning" artists with specific assignments. As a result, I started seeking God for His compositions, rather than working up my own ideas the old fashioned way!

During my lifetime, the Holy Spirit has given me eight historically unique, Christ-honoring compositions, which I have copyrighted and trademarked. Each one comes with my testimony of how God gave me the idea. Sherry and I pray that these colorful and inspiring Canvas Prints will be a great blessing to you and all who see my work!

I fell in love with God’s creation about the same time I gave my heart to Jesus Christ, at age 7. Thanks to my dad and both grandfathers, I was introduced to the “Great Outdoors” when I was young. I caught my first fish on a cane pole, baited by Grandpa Greiner. I caught my first live Cottontail rabbit in an old fashion wood box trap, made by my Grandpa Cain. I crafted my own sling shot, bow and arrow in grade school.

I learned the skills of backpacking, canoeing and camping during my years in the Boy Scouts, where I earned the highest rank of Eagle. I harvested my first squirrel with an old single shot 16 gauge shot gun. I learned taxidermy from a correspondence course that I ordered in the mail. I arrowed my first whitetail deer at age 17, and first bull elk at age 18.

The stalking skills I learned bowhunting helped me become a good wildlife photographer. I carried my bow and 35 mm Pentax camera from South Texas to the Arctic Circle. Many times I passed up a shot with my bow to take the shot with my camera. I have many beautiful nature and wildlife images, which I now will start sharing using the medium of wrapped Canvas Prints.

CANVAS PRINTS "LANDSCAPE EDITION"

Pictured here is my first Landscape Canvas Print, which is made from one of my oil paintings, created back in 1980. This full-size, 24" x 36" Canvas Print depicts the family farm house where Sherry and I lived the first three years of our art business.

Sherry and I began my fine art career living on 116 acres of beautiful forest, near Woodville, TX, a small Southeast Texas town of about 3,000 people. My parents owned this farm house for over 30 years. They used it as a weekend and summer place for our family when we lived in Port Arthur, TX.

The beautiful property was covered with wildlife, open fields, giant pine, oak, hickory, beech, magnolia and dogwood trees. It had many natural springs, a beautiful small creek and lake full of fish.

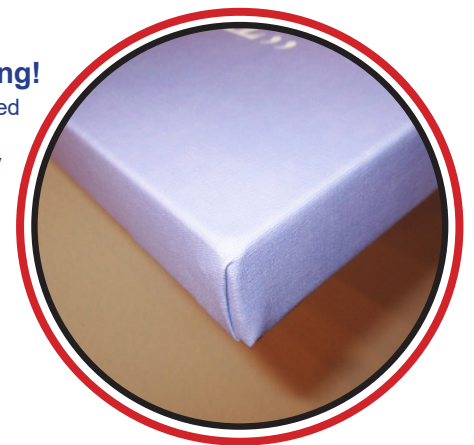

After leaving my successful advertising job in Los Angeles, this peaceful, green oasis was the perfect place to begin our fine art business.
